

SAFEGUARDING: U.S. DEMOCRACY

How can YOU make a difference?

Learn how judges are selected!

Thursday, April 29th at 7:00 pm
E.S.U. Colonial Ballroom

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: James M. Concannon

Distinguished Professor of Law
Washburn University

PANELISTS: Dr. Barbara Baker

Director of Multicultural Affairs, E.S.U.

Kenneth Buchele

Citizen Member of Judicial Nominating Committee

Deborah Huth

President, Lyon/Chase County Bar Association

Presented by the League of Women Voters of Emporia, LWVUS Ed fund and the Open Society Foundation.

Partnering with the American Democracy Project at E.S.U. and the Center for Student Involvement at E.S.U.

“Justice is the end of government. It is the end of civil society. It has ever been and will be pursued until it is obtained or liberty be lost...” by JAMES MADISON